ABSTRACT

Produced for college students, five bibliographies list emigration and immigration sources related to the peopling of Minnesota by Scandanavian groups (Swedes, Danes, Finns, Icelanders, and Norwegians). Over 400 citations identify books, articles, conference papers, diaries, personal papers of families, and historical society papers from the late 19th Century through the 1970s. Each bibliography is arranged alphabetically by author and divided into sections according to English language titles, Scandanavian titles, and documents. Materials can be found in the libraries of The Minnesota Historical Society, Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Olaf College, Norwegian American Historical Society, and the University of Minnesota. (KC)
